LIQUIDATING TRUSTEE'S AMENDED FIRST OMNIBUS OBJECTION (BOOKS AND RECORDS) TO CLAIMS FILED AGAINST ROCHESTER DRUG CO-OPERATIVE, INC. BY FINSON LAW FIRM

THIS OBJECTION SEEKS TO DISALLOW AND EXPUNGE YOUR FILED PROOFS OF CLAIM.

Advisory Trust Group, LLC, the trustee (the "Liquidating Trustee") of the RDC Liquidating Trust files this Amended First Omnibus Objection to Claims (Books and Records) Filed Against Rochester Drug Co-Operative, Inc. by Finson Law Firm (the "Objection"). Pursuant to the Objection, the Liquidating Trustee objects to the claims identified on Exhibit A hereto (the "Disputed Claims") and seeks entry of an order (the "Proposed Order"), substantially in the form

<sup>1</sup> On February 26, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation (the "Plan of Liquidation") of Rochester Drug Co-operative, Inc. ("RDC") which (along with that certain Liquidating Trust Agreement and Declaration of Trust) established the RDC Liquidating Trust and empowered it to collect and administer RDC's Assets and resolve Claims against RDC.

annexed hereto as Exhibit B, disallowing and expunging the Disputed Claims pursuant to section 502(b) of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”), and Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”). In support of this Objection, the Liquidating Trustee submits the Declaration of David Greenblatt (the “Greenblatt Declaration”), attached hereto as Exhibit C, and the Declaration of Judith Elkin (the “Elkin Declaration”), attached hereto as Exhibit D. In further support of this Objection, the Liquidating Trustee respectfully states as follows:

Jurisdiction

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2) and the Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Western District of New York, dated February 29, 2012. The Liquidating Trustee confirms its consent, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Objection to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

2. Venue in this Court is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 3001 and 3007 and the Local Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York (the “Local Bankruptcy Rules”).

Background

4. On March 12, 2020, Rochester Drug Co-Operative, Inc. (“RDC” or the “Debtor”) filed a petition under chapter 11 the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy

Court for the Western District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”). According to the Debtor’s first day declaration and disclosure statement,<sup>2</sup> the Debtor was in the business of, among other things, purchasing and warehousing drugs and pharmaceutical products and selling and distributing such products to its member pharmacies, all of which were located in the following states: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Vermont.

5. On March 27, 2020, the Debtor filed its schedules of assets and liabilities (the “Schedules”) [Docket No. 105] pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007 and the Ex Parte Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 1007(c) and 9006(b)(1) Extending the Time to File Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, Schedules of Current Income and Expenditures, Schedules of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and Statements of Financial Affairs [Docket No. 28].

6. On May 19, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order authorizing Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC (“Epiq”) to serve as Claims and Noticing Agent [Docket No. 318].

7. On June 15, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order [Docket No. 401] (the “Bar Date Order”) which, among other things, fixed July 31, 2020 as the date by which any person or entity holding (a) a Claim against the Debtor that arose or is deemed to have arisen prior to the Petition Date (the “General Bar Date”), or (b) an administrative expense claim against the Debtor that arose under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “503(b)(9) Bar Date”) must file a written proof of claim (a “Proof of Claim”) asserting such claim against the Debtor. Furthermore, pursuant to the Bar Date Order, September 8, 2020 was fixed as the date by which any Governmental Unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) holding a claim against the Debtor that arose or is deemed to have arisen prior to the Petition Date must file a Proof of Claim (the “Government Bar Date”). The Liquidating Trustee is informed and believes that the Debtor (or its agents) served the Bar Date Order, notice of the bar dates and a Proof of Claim form (collectively, the “Bar Date Notice Package”), upon all parties contemplated by the Bar Date Order. See Certificate of Service [Docket No. 431].

8. On December 18, 2020, the Debtor amended certain of its Schedules (the “Amended Schedules”) and gave claimants whose Claims were affected by the amendment until January 31, 2021 to file Claims [Docket Nos. 1014, 1016].

9. On February 26, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the “Confirmation Order”) confirming RDC’s Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation (the “Plan of Liquidation”). Pursuant to the Confirmation Order, the Plan of Liquidation and that certain Liquidating Trust Agreement and Declaration of Trust (the “Trust Agreement”) (collectively, the “Plan Documents”), RDC’s Assets were transferred to the RDC Liquidating Trust which was empowered, among other things, to: (i) collect and administer the Debtor’s Assets (including Causes of Action) and (ii) resolve Claims against the Debtor and its estate.<sup>3</sup>

10. The Effective Date of the Plan of Liquidation occurred on March 19, 2021.

11. As of the Effective Date, Advisory Trust Group, LLC was appointed to act as trustee of the RDC Liquidating Trust.

12. Pursuant to the Plan of Liquidation: (i) the Bankruptcy Court retained jurisdiction, “[t]o hear and determine objections to the allowance of Claims, whether filed, asserted or made before or after the Effective Date, including, without limitation, to hear and determine objections to the classification of Claims and the allowance or disallowance of disputed Claims, in whole or in part;” and (ii) the Liquidating Trustee “may object to Claims at any time prior to the dissolution of the [RDC] Liquidating Trust.” Plan of Liquidation, § 10.13(d); § 8.14.

No. 1145); Notice of Effective Date (Docket No. 1305). If not defined herein, capitalized terms have the definitions given to them in the Plan Documents.

13. On July 16, 2021, the Court granted the Liquidating Trustee’s Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Discharging Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC and (II) Retaining Bankruptcy Management Solutions, Inc. d/b/a Stretto as the Post-Confirmation Claims Agent [Docket No. 1384]. Pursuant to that order, Epiq was discharged and Bankruptcy Management Solutions, Inc. (“Stretto”), now maintains the official claims register.

14. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3007(e), this Objection is being filed to 100 of the over 2,100 claims timely filed by the Finson Law Firm on behalf of certain individuals asserting Claims against RDC (the “Claimants”). As set forth below, the Liquidating Trustee believes filing this Objection as an omnibus objection is appropriate. Exhibit A to this Objection identifies the Disputed Claims being objected to herein and includes the name of each Claimant, the claim number assigned to each Disputed Claim, and the dollar amount of each Disputed Claim. Other than the name of each Claimant, no address or other contact information of the Claimant is included on any of the proofs of claim listed on Exhibit A. The only signatory and contact information on each proof of claim is that of counsel – Lowell Finson of the Finson Law Firm (the “Finson Firm”). Each proof of claim appears to be identical in that each contains only the name of the alleged Claimant, is filed for an “undetermined” amount, states the basis of the claim as “Litigation-Pers. Injury/Workers Comp.,” and contains an attachment that is a generic discussion of RDC’s pre-petition opioid practices and the consent decrees it entered into with various governmental entities. Only the name of the Claimant appears to be different on each proof of claim form. None of the proofs of claim contains any information as to the alleged Claimant’s residence or place of business, the Claimant’s connection to RDC or any of its member pharmacies, or a description or dollar amount of the actual damages suffered by the Claimant as a result of any actions allegedly taken by RDC. An example of the proofs of claim filed by the Finson Firm and subject to this Objection is attached to the Greenblatt Declaration as Exhibit C-2.

Relief Requested

15. By this Objection, the Liquidating Trustee seeks entry of the Proposed Order pursuant to section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code disallowing the Disputed Claims of the Claimants identified on Exhibit A because the Liquidating Trustee is unable to determine the validity of any Disputed Claim, each Disputed Claim is for an undetermined amount and none of the proofs of claim contain any exhibits or documentation in support of the Disputed Claims.

16. Omnibus Claim Objection is Appropriate. Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d) provides for the filing of omnibus claim objections (objections to more than one claim in a single pleading) if “all the claims were filed by the same entity, or the objections are based solely on the grounds that the claims should be disallowed, in whole or in part, because: . . . (6) they were presented in a form that does not comply with applicable rules, and the objection states that the objector is unable to determine the validity of the claim because of the noncompliance; . . .” This omnibus objection is appropriate because all the Disputed Claims identified on Exhibit A were filed by the same entity (Finson Law Firm) and it is impossible for the Liquidating Trustee to identify or serve each Claimant as no information other than the name of the alleged Claimant is provided. Additionally, use of the omnibus objection procedures set out in the Bankruptcy Rules is appropriate because none of the proofs of claim identified on Exhibit A comply with Bankruptcy Rule 3001(a) and the Official Form. Therefore, the Liquidating Trustee is unable to determine the validity of any Disputed Claim because of the noncompliance. Notwithstanding that the Finson

Law Firm filed approximately 2170 proofs of claim containing the same defects discussed above, in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3007(e), this Objection is limited to 100 claims.<sup>4</sup>

17. Each Disputed Claim Should Be Disallowed. None of the proofs of claim identified on Exhibit A are compliant with Bankruptcy Rule 3001(a). Bankruptcy Rule 3001(a) provides that “[a] proof of claim shall conform substantially to the Official Form.” The Official Form requires inclusion of the following information:

- (1) the creditor’s name and address,
- (2) the basis for the claim,
- (3) the date the debt was incurred,
- (4) the amount of the claim,
- (5) the classification of claim, and
- (6) any supporting documents.

None of the proofs of claim listed in Exhibit A contain this information. Therefore, the Liquidating Trustee cannot determine the validity or amount of any of the Disputed Claims.

18. A filed proof of claim is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest objects. 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). A properly executed and filed proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of the claim under section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f); see also In re Residential Capital, LLC, 524 B.R. 465, 477 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015).

19. If an objection refuting at least one of the claim’s essential allegations is asserted, the Claimant has the burden to demonstrate the validity of the claim. In re Ditech Holding

<sup>4</sup> The Liquidating Trustee decided to file this Objection to only 100 of the approximately 2170 proofs of claim filed by the Finson Firm in an effort to maximize efficiency and gain guidance regarding the other approximately 2070 cookie-cutter claims filed by the Finson Firm. The Liquidating Trustee reserves the right to object to all claims filed by the Finson Firm.

Corp., 2021 Bankr. LEXIS 1299, *10 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 13, 2021). If there is an objection to a claim, the bankruptcy court, after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of such claim as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount, subject to certain exceptions identified in the statute. 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). One such exception is that the court shall not allow a claim if “such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

20. Here, ample evidence exists to rebut the prima facie validity of each of the 100 Disputed Claims identified on Exhibit A. A total of approximately 2170 proofs of claim were filed by the Finson Firm (inclusive of some which appear to be duplicates). Each proof of claim is identical in that each contains only the name of the alleged Claimant, is filed for an “undetermined” amount, states the basis of the claim as “Litigation-Pers. Injury/Workers Comp.,” and contains an attachment that is a generic discussion of RDC’s pre-petition opioid practices and the consent decrees it entered into with various governmental entities. None of the proofs of claim filed Finson Firm contains any information as to the alleged Claimant’s residence or place of business, the Claimant’s connection to RDC or any of its member pharmacies, or a dollar amount or description of the actual damages suffered by the Claimant as a result of any actions taken by RDC. Nor do any of the claims attach a complaint.

21. Included in each proof of claim is the following statement:

If necessary, Creditor/Claimant (hereinafter referred to as “Creditor” or “Creditor/Claimant”) will produce medical records indicating proof of use of an opioid, addiction, and permanent physical and emotional damages. Further records can be produced showing economic losses associated with the addiction sequelae.

However, none of this information has ever been provided, despite being requested. Additionally, this information alone would not show any relationship between this Debtor and any particular Claimant to support allowance of a Claim in this case.

22. On July 12, 2022, counsel for the Liquidating Trustee sent Mr. Lowell Finson of the Finson Firm a letter (A true and correct copy of which is attached to the Elkin Declaration as Exhibit D-1) seeking the following information as well as the information each proof of claim indicated could be provided: (i) the full name, address and contact information of each Claimant; (ii) evidence that each Claimant either lives/works or lived/worked in the Debtor's geographic area of operations; (iii) evidence that each Claimant purchased opioids from the Debtor or from one of its member pharmacies and the type and amount of opioids purchased, inclusive of prescription data and related medical diagnosis; (iv) a breakdown of the types of injuries suffered by each Claimant; and (v) the actual dollar amount of each alleged claim and any specific data supporting the dollar amount and relating that dollar amount to harm allegedly caused to the Claimant by the Debtor. The letter asked that the requested information be provided by August 15, 2022.

23. Upon receipt of the letter, on July 12, 2022, Mr. Finson responded by email to counsel for the Liquidating Trustee that he would provide the requested information. A true and correct copy of the 7/12/22 email is attached to the Elkin Declaration as Exhibit D-2. During mid-July 2022, counsel for the Liquidating Trustee had a phone conversation with Mr. Finson further describing the case and the information needed. No further response was ever received. On September 2, 2022, counsel for the Liquidating Trustee emailed Mr. Finson asking for an update on the requests for information. As of the date of this Objection, no response has been received. A true and correct copy of the 9/2/22 email is attached to the Elkin Declaration as Exhibit D-3.

24. Without the information requested above, the Liquidating Trustee is unable to assess the validity or amount of the Disputed Claims listed on Exhibit A. The records of RDC do not show any relationship between RDC and any named Claimant and the Liquidating Trustee does not have any information on any named Claimant's address, basis of claim or claim amount. Therefore, each Disputed Claim listed on Exhibit A should be disallowed.

Reservation of Rights

25. This Objection is limited to the grounds stated herein. Accordingly, it is without prejudice to the rights of the Liquidating Trustee or any other party in interest to further object to the claims listed on Exhibit A (to the extent not disallowed and expunged pursuant to this Objection) on any grounds whatsoever, and the Liquidating Trustee expressly reserves all further substantive or procedural objections it may have.

Notice

26. Pursuant to this Court's Administrative Order dated December 21, 2020, the Objection will be served and electronically filed at least 30 days prior to the return date and time, and service on the Finson Firm will comply with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004.

27. In addition to counsel for the Claimants, the Liquidating Trustee will provide notice of this Objection to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee, 100 State Street, Room 6090, Rochester, New York, Attn: Kathleen Dunivin Schmitt; (b) counsel to RDC; (c) the twenty largest unsecured creditors; (d) Bankruptcy Management Solutions, Inc., and (e) all parties that have filed a request to receive service of court filings pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

28. Service on the actual Claimants subject to this Objection is not possible because none of the Disputed Claims identified on Exhibit A contain any address other than that of the Finson Firm. The Liquidating Trustee requests the Court determine service was proper under these circumstances.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated in the Objection, the Liquidating Trustee respectfully requests that the Court determine service of the Objection proper under the circumstances set forth in the Objection, sustain the Objection, disallow the claims listed on Exhibit A and grant such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
